

*Three years ago at the weekend there was a story with my sisters. We decided to have a pajama party. We lived on the ground floor. It was fun: we watched movies, played board games. Then we went to bed, we noticed that someone was looking at us through the window. Then we heard as if the window had opened, but thought it was a wind, we ran into the room and began to beat the person with pillows, but then we heard a familiar voice, it turned out to be our friend. When she tried to enter, no one opened the door. Irina Botnikova 7A

*Once upon a time there was a boy called Maxim. Max wanted to see aliens on the moon and to eat free – of charge pizza, ice cream and drinks. And one day he was walking and met the alien. The alien wanted the boy to go with him. Max decided to live with the aliens. AND LIVED THEY LONG AND HAPPY!!! Liza Protasova 7A

Unexpected Encounter

*On Tuesday last summer my friend Pasha and I were in the countryside next to Miass city. The sun was shining brightly and the air was hot. However, gusts of wind were raw. In the afternoon we went to the top where the ancient stones are rested. We climbed on the ancient stones and started look around. We were standing on the top of the rock when I turned around and saw saw a venomous snake, sneaking towards the Pasha's back. I quickly took a stick and stunned it. The snake understood everything and crept back into the bushes. After all these, we were standing on the stones for a long time in a shocked state. Calmed down, we moved home discussing what had happened. Right after I got home, I had a lunch and went to bed. That was the day. Arseniy Protasov 7G

Scary Hide and Seek

*It was 5 pm. I was sitting at home with my little sister named Tara. She was bored and we decided to play hide and seek. I waited a minute and went to look for my sister. First room, second room, third room...I checked all the rooms, and I was about to call my sister but then I remembered the basement. As I entered the basement, the door closed. It was very scary. I called my mother very quickly and told her a situation. Mom was shocked. She said she and Tara had been out. Suddenly I heard a voice behind me, I remembered it. It was my sister's voice. I ran to the door and there... I woke up. It was a dream... or not? Kira Varaxina 7A

TALE TIME

Fairy tale

My favorite Russian fairy tale is Morozko. The main character is Nastya. She is a kind and modest girl. She lives with her father, stepmother and sister. The stepmother hates Nastya and makes her do hard work. One day in winter, the angry stepmother orders her husband to take Nastya to the forest and leave her there. Nastya meets Morozko in the forest. For her kindness and good work Morozko gives her gifts and gold and sends her home. After that the stepmother sends her own daughter to the forest to get gifts and gold. But Morozko doesn't like this lazy and rude girl. He gives her only stones. Soon Nastya gets married and becomes happy. This fairy tale teaches us to be kind and to do our work well.

«CINDERELLA»

Once upon a time there was a beautiful kind girl. Her name was Cinderella. She lived with her stepmother and two stepsisters. Day after day Cinderella came to wash, to clean she alone maintained order throughout the house. Once the news came that a ball was held in the royal palace in honor of the prince. The stepmother and stepsisters left for the holiday. Cinderella was left alone among the dirty dishes. She cried. And then the godmother fairy appeared. Godmother turned Cinderella's rags into a beautiful dress. How Cinderella looked just like a real princess! Cinderella got into the carriage and she rushed off to the royal palace. When the clock strikes 12 o'clock, the magic will disappear. All evening the prince danced only with Cinderella. She running down, the stairs home dropped one of the crystal shoes. The princes order all the girls in kingdom to try on this shoe. Everybody this shoe was too small. Cinderella slipped exactly on the legs. Soon Cinderella and the prince celebrated the wedding and since then happily ever after.

The end.

Tale of the Fisherman and the Goldfish

The old man with the old woman lived in a dilapidated dugout on the seashore. They lived together for 33 years, the old man was fishing, and the old woman was spinning her yarn. Once the old man went fishing. Twice he threw a net, but pulled out only mud. At last he got one fish, but not a simple one, but a gold one.

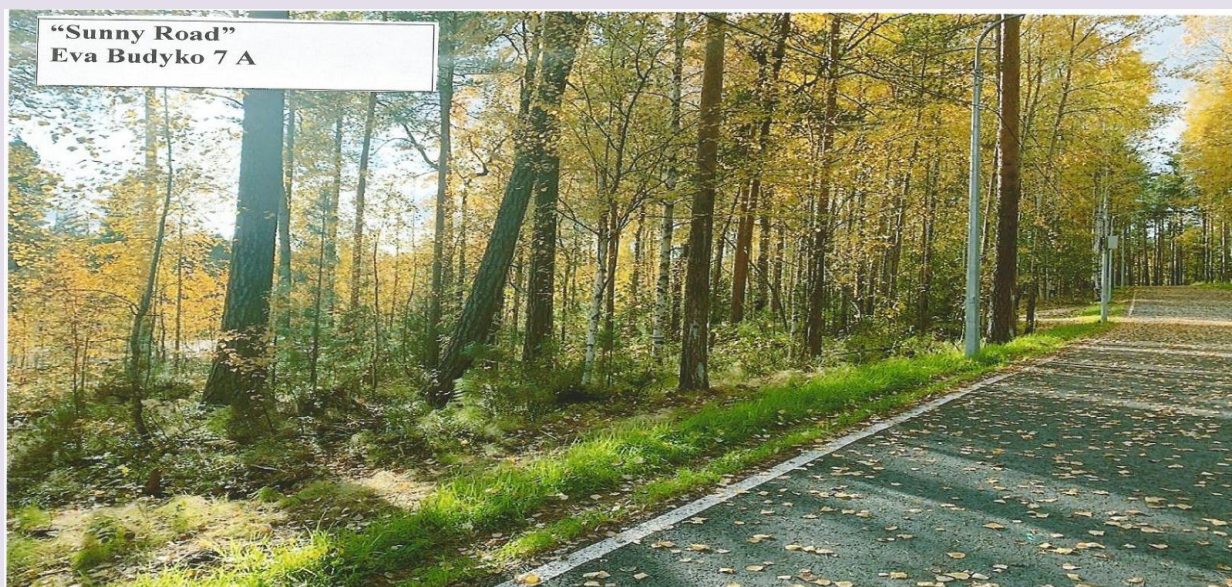

Returning home, the old man told about this miracle to his old wife. All that was done what he sent back to the sea, but then when the old man came over the fish over and over again, it tired and she returned everything back as is

Young president

Brian Zimmerman – the youngest mayor in history. In 1983, an eleven-year-old boy, Brian, decided to run for mayor of the tiny town of Crabbe, Texas. At that time, a little more than 200 people lived in Crabbe. An eleven-years-old boy won an easy election victory, gaining more than 75% of the vote. Unfortunately, Zimmerman failed to fulfill the main election promise. He said that he would not allow the „absorption” of Crabbe by large settlements located close to him.

The youngest mayor in the history of the United States has become famous throughout America. Newspaper wrote about him with enviable regularity, and director Ron Howard in 1986 laid the story of Brian as the basis for the plot of the movie

„The Lonely Star Child”. James Earl Jones, an Academy Award winner for outstanding services in the field of cinema, starred in this picture.

Dear my friend,
Many thank for you letter!

I recently found out about a boy named Mozaya. He is very smart. This boy is from Memphis began his business at age nine. And today, at his thirteen, his company's turnover is estimated at 15 million rubles. Little? So this is just the beginning! What kind of Mozaya's business is this, you ask? Yes, especially nothing extraordinary as he produces bow ties. He received his first orders through the Facebook then opened an online store. And here is the result!

Mozaya also does charity work.

I'll write again soon,
With love,

Mikhail Antipov, as a kid, learned to play chess. The skill of the young chess player grew with age. He was the winner of Russian international chess tournaments. At fifteen he was a Master of sports and at 16 he was the youngest Grandmaster of Russia. Makar Karasev 7G

The man from our city whom I admire is tennis player Mariya Sharapova. She began to play tennis since the age 4, her father was a coach in this sport. At 13, Masha won the competition and received a special award. She also participated in the Olympics in London, which was held in 2012 and took the second place there.

THE PEOPLE I ADMIRE

Mikhail Vasilyevich Lomonosov (1711-1765) was born in the village Denisovka, Kholmogory, Arkhangelsk in the family of a state peasant who was engaged in agriculture and fishing. In December 1730 Lomonosov went to Moscow. In 1736 he was sent to Germany. He studied Natural Science, Chemistry, Mining, Physics, History, Astronomy. He died in spring 1765 from cold. Alexey Nikolaev 7G

Vincent Van Gogh was born in 30th of March 1853 in Grot-Sundert, Netherland. He is famous for his many pictures and illustrations that people admire. Vincent studied in village's school, then in the boarding school. There he was good at studying languages and got his first knowledge about painting. Then he dropped out of school and returned back home. In 1868 young Vincent went to the Artist school in Gaag. Then he went to the Artist school in London for good job. In 1875 he started to fall into a hard depression from unrequited love. Vincent died in 1890 in 29th of July, he shot himself. The reason I admire him is because he went through a hard life way and didn't stop to do his favorite hobby. And I always excited his paintings. Alex Galtsova 7A

Sergey Korolev was born late in the evening 30, December 1906 in the city Zhitomir in the family of a teacher of Russian literature. Having arrived in 1924 in the Kiev Politechnic Institute, Korolev for two years mastered in the general engineering disciplines and became the athlete-glider pilot. In the autumn 1926 he transferred to the Moscow higher technical school. April 12, 1961 He once again stunned the world community, creating the first spacecraft "Vostik-1" and sent the first human, a citizen of the USSR Yuri Gagarin in the Earth orbit.

Arseney Protasov 7G

Alexey Petrovich Maresyev in the midst of World War 2 defended the country from invaders, being a military pilot. In one of the battles, the plane of Alexey Maresyev was destroyed. Miraculously, the hero managed to stay alive. However, severe injuries forced him to agree to amputation of both lower limbs.

However getting disability did not bother the outstanding pilot. Only after leaving the military hospital, he began to seek the right to return to aviation. The army was in dire need of talented pilot. Therefore, soon prostheses were offered to Alexei Maresyev. Thus, he made many more sorties. For his courage and military exploits, the pilot was awarded the title Hero of the Soviet Union.
